Dear Sir: —

I have a silver dollar coined in 1799, making it ninety years old. The dollar is about larger and heavier than the silver dollars of today.
 I would like to sell my dollar and write to you to this effect. I know that old coins are rough, alter, and if you do not desire to purchase it will you be so kind as to inform me to whom I can sell.

I would like to keep the dollar very much, but I am more desirous of finishing

Wants to sell a Silver Dollar of 1799.

[Abstract:] Wants to sell a Silver Dollar of 1799.

Henryville, Ind.
August 30, 1889

To the manager of the U.S. Mint, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Dear Sir: -

I have a silver dollar coined in 1799, making it ninety years old. The dollar is some larger and heavier than the silver dollars of today. I would like to sell my dollar and write to you to this effect. I know that old coins are sought after and if you do not desire to purchase it will you be so kind as to inform me to whom I can sell.

I would like to keep the dollar very much, but I am more desirous of finishing my education and consequently it becomes necessary for me to part with it.

Hoping to hear from you soon I am very Respectfully

Tina Clark
